Chandler, Morris, Ericksen, Quall, Kastama, Santos, Grant, Stensen, Keiser, Poulsen, Wensman, Scott, Rockefeller, Reardon, Kenney, Cody, Lovick, Cooper, Koster, Haigh, McDonald, Van Luven, Lantz, Wood, Regala, Edmonds, Hurst, Dunshee, Constantine, Dickerson, Wolfe, Ogden, Ruderman and McIntire)

Providing for oil and gas pipeline safety.

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/14/00)

Declares an intent to protect the health and safety of the citizens of the state of Washington and the quality of the state's environment by developing and implementing environmental and public safety measures applicable to persons transporting hazardous liquids and gas by pipeline within the state of Washington.

Finds that public safety and the environment may best be protected by adopting standards that are equal to, or more stringent than, those adopted by the federal government.

Declares that it is the further intent of this act to ensure that the state of Washington fully activate the authority it is currently provided under the federal pipeline safety act (49 U.S.C. Sec. 60101 et seq.) as it exists on the effective date of this act. In addition, it is the intent of this act to provide policy direction for the development of state pipeline safety programs in the event of a delegation of authority to the state for inspection of interstate pipelines.

Requests that the governor work with the state congressional delegation in seeking improvements to the federal pipeline safety act (49 U.S.C. Sec. 60101) when it is being reauthorized.

Directs the department and the utilities and transportation commission to jointly support the governor in seeking delegation of federal authority to inspect interstate pipelines and enforce state and federal pipeline safety requirements.

Transfers all powers, duties, and functions of the utilities and transportation commission pertaining to hazardous liquid pipeline safety to the department of ecology upon receipt of federal certification for hazardous liquids and natural gas pipeline safety.

Creates a pipeline safety committee to advise the department, and other appropriate federal, state, and local government agencies and officials on matters relating to pipeline safety, routing, construction, operation, and maintenance.

Requires that, in consultation with the emergency management program within the state military department, the department of ecology, and local emergency services organizations, the chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall: (1) Evaluate the preparedness of local first responders in meeting emergency management demands under this act; and

(2) conduct an assessment of the equipment needed by local first responders to meet emergency management demands related to pipelines.

Directs the chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, to develop curricula for training local first responders to deal with pipeline accidents.

Directs the utilities and transportation commission to establish a single state-wide toll-free telephone number to be used for referring excavators to the appropriate one-call center.

Provides that, whenever excavation work occurs within five feet of a hazardous liquid or gas pipeline, the one-call system shall be notified by the excavator at least two working days prior to the start of excavation.

Requires that, by September 1, 2000, the utilities and transportation commission and the department of ecology shall jointly provide notice to all appropriate contractors about new hazardous liquid and gas pipeline safety and excavation requirements.

Provides that any excavator, except a person engaged in the agricultural tillage of soil as defined in RCW 19.122.020, who fails to notify a one-number locator service as required by RCW 19.122.030 and causes damage to a hazardous liquids pipeline or gas pipeline is subject to a civil penalty of not less than one thousand dollars for the first violation. The maximum civil penalty under this section for multiple violations may not exceed ten thousand dollars for each violation.

HB 2451-S2 by House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives McDonald, Hurst, Ruderman, Dunn, Mielke, Sullivan, Kastama, Bush, O'Brien, Schoesler, Wolfe, Stensen and Keiser)

Creating penalties for crimes involving anhydrous ammonia.

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/11/00)

Provides that, a person who, with intent to deprive the owner or owner's agent, wrongfully obtains anhydrous ammonia, is guilty of theft of anhydrous ammonia.

Declares theft of anhydrous ammonia is a class C felony.

Declares that a person is guilty of the crime of unlawful storage of anhydrous ammonia if the person possesses anhydrous ammonia in a container that: (1) Is not approved by the United States department of transportation to hold anhydrous ammonia, or

(2) does not meet state and federal industrial health and safety standards for holding anhydrous ammonia. Violation of this section is a class C felony.

Declares that any damages arising out of the unlawful possession of, storage of, or tampering with anhydrous ammonia or anhydrous ammonia equipment shall be the sole responsibility of the unlawful possessor, storer, or tamperer.

Provides that the act shall be null and void if appropriations are not approved.

Regarding instream flows and trust water rights.

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/14/00)

Declares that a water right acquired by the state that is expressly conditioned to limit its use to instream purposes shall be administered as a trust water right in compliance with that condition.

Provides that, if an aquatic species is listed as threatened or endangered under the federal endangered species act (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq.) for a body of water, certain instream flows are needed for the species, and the holder of a right to water from the body of water chooses to donate all or a portion of the person's water right to the trust water system to assist in providing those instream flows on a temporary or permanent basis as described in this act, the department shall accept the donation on such terms as the person may prescribe. Once accepted, such rights are trust water rights within the conditions prescribed by the donor.

HB 3135 by Representatives Mitchell, Fisher, H. Sommers, Huff, Ericksen, Hankins, Edwards and Cooper

Depositing undesignated funds.

Provides that, although current law directs revenues collected in lieu of the motor vehicle excise tax to be deposited in the manner provided under RCW 82.44.110, the legislature finds that these fund sources are no longer appropriate in light of passage of Initiative Measure No. 695. Taxes levied in lieu of the motor vehicle excise tax shall continue to be deposited into an account in the state treasury to be used strictly for transportation purposes.

Declares that, to the extent that ambiguity may exist under current law, the legislature hereby provides that taxes on retail car rentals collected under RCW 82.08.020 be deposited into the multimodal transportation account, created under this act. The legislature intends that deposits in this account be made retroactive to December 31, 1999.

Provides that all moneys owing or paid to the state that are not designated for deposit into a specific fund or account shall be held outside the general fund in the undesignated funds holding account, created in this act.

Creates the multimodal transportation account in the state treasury. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for transportation purposes.

SB 6668-S by Senate Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Senators McAuliffe, Finkbeiner, Eide, Rasmussen, Goings, Kohl-Welles, B. Sheldon and Patterson; by request of Governor Locke)

Promoting standards for educator quality.

(AS OF SENATE 2ND READING 2/14/00)

Finds and declares: (1) Creation of a public, rule-making body whose focus is educator assessment would be likely to bring greater focus and attention to the profession;

(2) professional educator standards boards are consumer protection boards, establishing assessment policies to ensure the public that its practitioners are competent;

(3) the highest possible standards for all educators are essential in ensuring attainment of high academic standards by all students;

(4) teacher assessment for certification can guard against admission to the teaching profession of persons who have not demonstrated that they are knowledgeable in the subjects they will be assigned to teach; and

(5) teacher assessment for certification should be implemented as an additional element to the system of teacher preparation and certification.

Creates the Washington professional educator standards board.

Provides that the Washington professional educator standards board shall: (1) Serve as the sole advisory body to the state board of education on issues related to educator recruitment, hiring, preparation, certification including high quality alternate routes to certification, mentoring and support, professional growth, retention, and governance; and

(2) submit annual reports, beginning December 1, 2000, to the governor and the legislature concerning duties and activities within the board's advisory capacity. The Washington professional educator standards board shall submit a separate report by December 1, 2000, to the governor and the legislature, providing recommendations for at least two high quality alternate routes to teacher certification.

Repeals RCW 28A.410.020.
